

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CESAR TLATELPA,
Plaintiff,
v.
AMAZON.COM SERVICES, LLC,
Defendant.

Case No. 1:24-cv-00605-KES-CDB
ORDER GRANTING STIPULATED
REQUEST TO CONTINUE PRE-TRIAL
DEADLINES AND AMENDING
SCHEDULING ORDER AS MODIFIED
(Doc. 13)

Background

Pending before the Court is the parties' stipulated request to continue pre-trial deadlines. (Doc. 13).

In support of the request, the parties represent that, to reduce costs, they agreed to delay formal discovery pending their participation in private mediation, which they engaged in on February 6, 2025, but did not reach a settlement. Thereafter, Defendant retained new counsel (Docs. 7-9). Defendant's new counsel requires additional time to familiarize themselves with the case. After the private mediation, the parties began engaging in formal written discovery and anticipate beginning depositions at the end of April 2025. Id. at 2.

The parties, therefore, stipulate to modify the scheduling order and assert that these facts present good cause to do so. Id. at 3.

1 Discussion

2 The parties propose the following extended deadlines (id. at 3):

3 Event	4 Current Date	5 New Date
6 Non-Expert Discovery Deadline	7 05/06/2025	8 08/04/2025
9 Expert Disclosure Deadline	10 05/20/2025
11 Rebuttal Disclosure Deadline	12 06/17/2025
13 Expert Discovery Deadline	14 07/17/2025	10/15/2025
15 Mid-Discovery Status Conference	16 04/02/2025	07/02/2025
17 Non-Dispositive Motion Filing Deadline	18 07/31/2025	10/01/2025
19 Non-Dispositive Motion Hearing	20 09/08/2025	12/08/2025
21 Dispositive Motion Filing Deadline	22 09/22/2025	12/22/2025
23 Dispositive Motion Hearing	24 011/03/2025	02/02/2026
25 Pre-Trial Conference	26 03/09/2026
27 Trial	28 05/05/2026

15 For good cause shown, the parties' stipulated request to continue case management dates
16 (Doc. 13) will be granted, as modified below.

17 Given the extension of all pretrial deadlines, it is impractical to grant the parties' request
18 while maintaining the current expert disclosure and rebuttal expert disclosure deadlines, as well as 19 the pre-trial conference and trial dates. As such, and to comport with the assigned district judge's 20 scheduling protocols, all related deadlines as well as the pre-trial conference and trial dates will be 21 extended.

22 In light of the significant extensions of time granted herein, the Court admonishes the parties
23 that it is unlikely to grant further extensions of time. As the Court of Appeals has observed:

24 In these days of heavy caseloads, trial courts in both the federal and state systems
25 routinely set schedules and establish deadlines to foster efficient treatment and 26 resolution of cases. Those efforts will be successful only if the deadlines are taken 27 seriously by the parties, and the best way to encourage that is to enforce the deadlines. Parties must understand that they will pay a price for failure to comply strictly with scheduling and other orders . . .

28 Wong v. Regents of Univ. of Cal., 410 F.3d 1052, 1060 (9th Cir. 2005).

The Court admonishes the parties that any further extensions of case management deadlines to accommodate possible settlement discussions (which the Court expects to be undertaken in parallel with the extended case management dates below) will not be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.

Conclusion and Order

In light of the parties' representations and good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the scheduling order (Doc. 6) be amended as follows:

Event	Prior Date	Amended Date
1. Non-Expert Discovery Deadline	05/06/2025	08/04/2025
2. Expert Disclosure Deadline	05/20/2025	08/18/2025
3. Rebuttal Disclosure Deadline	06/17/2025	09/08/2025
4. Expert Discovery Deadline	07/17/2025	10/15/2025
5. Mid-Discovery Status Conference	04/02/2025	07/02/2025
6. Non-Dispositive Motion Filing Deadline	07/31/2025	10/01/2025

8. Dispositive Motion Filing Deadline	09/22/2025	12/22/2025

10. Pre-Trial Conference	03/09/2026	06/08/2026
